Week 9, Term 2 2021

From the Principal's Desk

Recent events in Australia involving the Victorian Covid lock down has made me once again grateful to be a West Australian, living in Western Australia. My thoughts go out to the businesses, families, teachers and especially the school students of Victoria, who once again have had their education interrupted by the Covid pandemic. It must be disconcerting for those students who are learning from home and very stressful for the parents who are once again thrust into the role of teacher. Fingers crossed, that as we continue to learn more from the virus and the vaccines do the job they are supposed to, we escape the threat of lock down and any more lost time from school.

Public School Review

Lakelands Primary School has received a positive school review report from the external reviewers. The report made special mention about the work we are doing around school improvement through transparent and honest analysis of the school's performance, highlighting clear alignment between evidence provided, the judgements made and the plans for advancement. The report goes on to say that the Lakelands school has developed a truly collaborative culture with parents and the wider community through purposeful, respectful and reciprocal partnerships focused on student needs. The whole school community can be very proud of this report as it represents the hard work of all stakeholders working together to make Lakelands PS a great school.

The review report will be celebrated with staff, made available on our school website, it will be discussed at our school board meeting and uploaded to Schools online : Schools Online Department of Education Western Australia \(det.wa.edu.au\)

Once again thank you to all those who were involved in the review of our school.

Friday, 2 July – Last day of Term 2

Tuesday, 20 July – Students first day - Term 3

School Uniform

At Lakelands Primary School we understand that students thrive in a learning environment that is welcoming, inclusive, collaborative and caring. Our Student Dress Code is one way in which we promote a sense of community, identity and safety for all students. We aim is to establish a climate that is supportive, non- discriminatory, equitable and safe and having a standard Dress Code helps us to achieve this goal. Honouring our school Dress Code strengthens pride in our school and promotes a positive image. Our uniform identifies our students ensuring their safety throughout the school day and whilst on excursions and is intended to reduce peer pressure for students and families by alleviating issues of competition and purchasing of expensive brand name clothing.

Wearing the correct school uniform is such a small thing. Here's three reasons why the small things matter and will matter later on in your child's:

Habits start small: You can look at anyone's habits and have a pretty good idea of how successful and productive they will be. Changing a habit for the better can change the trajectory of your life and work.

Doing the Small Things Requires (and Develops) Discipline: The choice to look after the small things (a habit in itself) creates a discipline that seeps into every other aspect of life.

Little Hinges Swing Big Doors: Habits and discipline are both behaviours that have a massive impact on our lives.

Voluntary Contributions

Voluntary contributions ($60 per year) are currently being collected by the front office. A huge thank you to those parents who have paid their voluntary contribution. Voluntary contributions are a vital income sources for our school so we can purchase additional iPads, library books and sport equipment. Last year we had 24% of our families pay their voluntary contributions which is understandable given the circumstances of 2020 and the Covid pandemic. This year as an incentive to pay the Sharp family have kindly donated three prizes as an incentive to pay your voluntary contributions.

The Year 5 Inspire Project

Next term we are excited to be involved in The Inspire Project, an innovative series of academic extension and enrichment programs delivered by Coastal Lakes College specialist curriculum leaders, to students in our local primary schools. The project is a collection of opportunities aimed at specific years and areas of curriculum extension and/or enrichment. This opportunity will be provided for an invited group of Year 5s from each of the primary schools. This opportunity is one program aimed to provide academic extension in either Mathematics/Science/Technologies or Humanities/English/Arts.

The program forms a part of the college's STEM focus through utilising the skills, knowledge and understandings of Design Process and presenting/engineering solutions to complete specific tasks. Through multidisciplinary learning, students will explore, be innovative and develop their critical thinking skills to enable them to solve problems based on real world issues in the 21st century. Inquiry, curiosity, being able to find solutions to problems and being creative in the finding of solutions is the heart of this approach. This means that Arts, English and Humanities and Social Sciences is woven into STEAM alongside Science and Mathematics.

Chaplain's Chat

The Chaplain is available to support your child through any circumstance. I have the privilege of spending quality time with students; this allows them to feel seen and heard. If your child needs support, I am available to catch up with them. The service is non-religious, and confidential. Sometimes all a child needs are to get things off their chest.

I'm available Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, during school hours

Waste Wise

Containers for Change is going great this term, with $99 raised by week 5 and hopefully another full bin by the end of the term. Remember that this term the money raised is going towards the Year 6 camp, so seniors are strongly encouraged to bring containers in. The bin is open on Tuesdays before school, or containers can be taken to TB 3.1 any other day. Any student that brings in 5 containers or more will go into the raffle for a prize.

Waste-free Wednesday is still happening. The junior classes have a close competition, however TB 3.2 in the seniors are front runners for this term's senior prize. Please pack lunches without rubbish every Wednesday and help the school to lower its contribution to landfill.

studies, showing that Triple P works for most families in a variety of cultures, countries and family situations. Triple P works by giving parents the skills to raise confident, healthy children and teenagers, and to build stronger family relationships. It also helps parents manage misbehaviour and prevent problems occurring in the first place.

But it doesn't tell people how to parent. Rather, it gives them simple and practical strategies they can adapt to suit their own values, beliefs and needs.

Triple P is also different because it is not 'one size-fits-all'. It's a system that offers increasing levels of support to meet parents' different needs. So parents can choose anything from one-off public seminars or self-help books to more detailed group courses or individual sessions. Triple P is now used in 25 countries including the USA, England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Belgium, Sweden, Germany, Japan, Iran, Hong Kong, Singapore, the Netherlands, Curacao, Switzerland and Romania. It has been translated from English into 19 other languages. parenting.

TOP 10 TIPS FOR PARENTS

1. When your child wants to show you something, stop what you are doing and pay attention to your child. It is important to spend frequent, small amounts of time with your child doing things that you both enjoy.
2. Give your child lots of physical affection – children often like hugs, cuddles, and holding hands.
3. Talk to your child about things he/she is interested in and share aspects of your day with your child.
4. Give your child lots of descriptive praise when they do something that you would like to see more of, e.g., "Thank you for doing what I asked straight away".
5. Children are more likely to misbehave when they are bored, so provide lots of engaging indoor and outdoor activities for your child: for example, playdough, coloring books, cardboard boxes, dress ups, play forts, etc.
6. Teach your child new skills by first showing the skill yourself, then giving your child opportunities to learn the new skill. For example, speak politely to each other in the home. Then, prompt your child to speak politely (e.g., say "please" or "thank you"), and praise your child for their efforts.
7. Set clear limits on your child's behavior. Sit down and have a family discussion on the rules in the home. Let your child know what the consequences will be if they break the rules.
8. If your child misbehaves, stay calm and give them a clear instruction to stop misbehaving and tell them what you would like them to do instead (e.g., "stop fighting; play nicely with each other." Praise your child if they stop. If they do not stop, follow through with an appropriate consequence.
9. Have realistic expectations. All children misbehave at times and it is inevitable that you will have some discipline hassles. Trying to be the perfect parent can set you up for frustration and disappointment.
10. Look after yourself. It is difficult to be a calm, relaxed parent if you are stressed, anxious, or depressed. Try to find time every week to let yourself unwind or do something that you enjoy.

National Quality Standard Update

Term 2

This term we have been focussing on:

Element 1.1.2 Child Centred- Each child's current knowledge, ideas, culture, abilities and interests are the foundation of the program.

Element 1.1.3 Program learning opportunities- The program, including routines, is organised in ways that maximise opportunities for each child's learning.

Element 3.2.2 Resources support play-based learning- Resources, materials and equipment are sufficient in number, organised in ways that ensure appropriate and effective implementation of the program and allow for multiple uses.

These elements fit well with our Early Childhood Philosophy here at Lakelands:

In Early Childhood at Lakelands we embrace inclusivity, creativity and a child focused environment. We provide purposeful, play based experiences to give our students hands-on learning opportunities.

We have been providing our students with many opportunities to make their own choices, decisions and to influence their learning in our early childhood area. We have also been adding to our resources and equipment to provide more play and learning opportunities for our students.

Kindy

In Kindy a Puppet Show was set up during outdoor play and has provided many opportunities for students to develop their oral language skills during play. Students created their own show for their peers and learnt how to be a good audience member, along with waiting patiently for their turn.

In class a Pizza Shop Role-Play was set up and students have been busy playing independently in the Pizza Shop. They have taken turns to order items from the menu and make pizza for their friends. It has been wonderful to hear the amount of oral language during this play time.
